

South Carolina Adult Event Camp

Dates: March 16-March 20, 2009

Where: Apple Tree Farm South Aiken, SC 803-266-5870

Come join Apple Tree Farm in Aiken, SC for a fun packed week in the sun (hopefully). This camp is geared to prepare riders for the upcoming event season. Riders need to be able to ride independently with control and be able to jump a small course in the open. Riders from just starting at the unrecognized elementary level of eventing through the preliminary level would be suited to this camp.

You may bring your own horse or we will arrange for you to lease a horse. There is the opportunity to stay longer or come earlier for an additional fee. We will be attending the Pine Top Horse trials the weekend of March 21-22 (BN-P). Participation in the event is optional.

Topics to include:

- Riding your dressage test/Show jumping practice/Cross-country schooling
- Galloping/conditioning/ learning pace
- Show turnout: Braiding/clipping
- Bandaging/lunging/equipment (studs, bits, martingales)
- 2-phase competition
- Trail riding and much more

Daily Schedule:

- Camp runs approx. 10 a.m. – 5p.m. (times vary)
- Riders have a dressage lesson in the morning
- Lecture at lunch
- Afternoon activities to include: XC schooling,
- Gallop/pace work, ride in Hitchcock woods, SJ practice.
- 2-phase competition

Limited to 8 riders. A completed application and 50% non-refundable deposit ($275) is required by Jan. 1 in order to secure your spot. Balance of camp fee ($275) is due by Feb. 15.

Costs:

- $550 Camp (payable to Apple Tree Farm)
- $175 lease horse (payable to owner of horse, does not include board)
